

Going Home To Carolina

Darren Prater

For Immediate Release

Graham, North Carolina - Songwriter, guitarist, and singer Darren Prater releases his 1st commercial CD recording. Living on the west coast most of his life, Darren was drawn by a love for God's people that eventually led him to North Carolina. Going Home To Carolina is the introduction to the many songs that have come from this time in Darren's life.

The Story Behind the CD

Darren tells his feelings from this transitional time in his life:

"This is a collection of songs that is very near and dear to my heart. Except for two short visits, I spent the first three months of 2002 alone at our old home on the west coast. My family and I were in the process of moving to North Carolina to be closer to a group of God's people he had put us together with. My wife and children went on ahead of me, and with the help of our family in the Lord, my wife set up house while I stayed behind to "tie up the loose ends." The song, "Going Home To Carolina" tells of the feelings I had while alone in our empty house, waiting for the day when I too would be "going home to Carolina."

"Those three months were long, but good for me spiritually speaking. In April of 2002, I was finally able to go home to Carolina. To me, Carolina is not a place on Earth, but a place in God that I had been praying for. It is a place where holiness is more important than large numbers, and where humility and a pure heart are chosen over ceremonies and traditions."

From the first song, "My Redeemer"; an up tempo, toe-tapping song sure to clear out the cobwebs of the heart and mind, to "You Know This of Me"; a song from the Lord, gentle, loving, and straight to the heart, this CD is full of the love and the feelings of God.

"I believe these songs are for any child of God who is hungering and thirsting after the righteousness of God, and for any soul who is tired and weary, looking for peace and rest in a world filled with strife and unrest." Darren Prater

"I've seen Darren sing in person many times. The anointing that Darren has to touch people's hearts is even much stronger in person. His slower songs, especially, have the gift of healing in them." Gary Savelli
